34,000 Churches Decry NJ Decision Allowing Same Sex Marriage, Gov. Chris Christie and Cory Booker are Moral Wimps You will need us in the future

Washington DC - The National Black Church Initiative (NBCI), a coalition of 34,000 churches representing 15.7 million African American churchgoers which have over 2,000 churches in the state of New Jersey. This is another case of politician selling their moral soul on behalf of sin and calling it justice and equality. The church will never call same-sex marriage right because it is wrong in the eyes of God, scripture and culture. We will never follow the likes of our politician who trash our beliefs, undermine our ethics and distort the Gospel. We will stand on our beliefs and we will exercise our beliefs in every sector of the marketplace.

Rev. Anthony Evans, President of the National Black Church Initiative declares “If you are a Christian in the State of New Jersey God is counting on you to oppose gay marriage and all who support it. When you are given an opportunity to express your viewpoint you should always choose to adhere to the Word of God and pray for those who tells the world that the Word of God is a lie. Remember beloved that prayer is a verb and you should act in a loving non-violent way.”

We plan to pray for our politicians and the court as they go about rearranging the Word of God to their liking. We will pray that God will have mercy on their souls. But if God chooses not to, we will continue to pray for mercy. There have been so many politicians who have supported this sin and undermined the religious values of both their families and themselves just to be a part of one of the most egregious sinful pop culture trend. The church must warn politicians and voters alike that by supporting this so-called notion of same-sex marriage you are violating the Word of God and undermining your relationship with God through Christ Jesus. Let everyone consider this a warning from the Lord Jesus Christ.
